EVANGELIZATIONSTILL WITH US

"Now there stood by the cross of Jesus"
one apostle and three Marys.

(John 19:25-27)

We can't help but believe the first person to be consoled by the risen Christ would be His own mother. Surely He hastened to dispel her grief with the warmth of His glorious embrace. Next to see Him was Mary Magdalene. Because she also was with Him to the end, Jesus made her the herald of His resurrection. To the heartbroken apostles she brought the heart—healing news: "He's alive - I've seen Him - and so will you!"

(John 20:16 - 18)

We've tried to stay close to the cross of Jesus. Today we can rejoice as He shows Himself to us - and we show Him to others - very much alive; ever so near and dear.

PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

Today Easter, is the celebration of Christ's Resurrection from the dead. It's celebrated on Sunday, and marks the end of Holy Week, the end of Lent, the last day of the Easter Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday,) and is the beginning of the Easter season of the liturgical year. As we know from the Gospels, Jesus Christ rose from the dead on the third day following His Crucifixion, which would be Sunday. His Resurrection marks the triumph of good over evil, sin and death. It's the singular event which proves that those who trust in God and accept Christ will too be raised from the dead. Since Easter represents the fulfillment of God's promises to humanity, it's the most important holiday on the Christian calendar.

As we begin a journey into this Easter Season 2016, we pray that the Risen Lord will bless you and your families. On behalf of all us here at St. Vincent de Paul, we wish you a Blessed Easter and thank you for allowing us to be part of your celebration.

THE HANDS AND FEET OF CHRIST:

Many of the residents of St. Augustine Manor, at West 78th and Detroit, are unable to wheel themselves to Mass which is celebrated in the Manor Chapel each day. Receiving the Holy Eucharist is the most important part of their day and a testament to their commitment of having Jesus be the center of their lives. Can you spend just two hours each month assisting our residents to and from Mass? Volunteers are needed, Monday through Saturday, from 3:00 to 5:00 (4:00 pm Mass) and Sundays, from 9:15—11:15 am (10:00 am Mass). Contact Mary Gagen, Volunteer Coordinator, at 216-939-7601 or mgagen@st-aug.org.
