EVANGELIZATION

TRULY ALIVE

"He was moved with pity for her." (Luke 7:13)

Two of today's Mass readings proclaim the theme of compassion, the power of prayer, and the miracle of new life. 1 Kings 17 shows us Elijah's pity for the widow of Zarephath as he prays over her lifeless child, and then restores him to her alive and well. In today's gospel, Jesus pities the widow of Naim for the loss of her only son - and then revives him with the powerful command, "Young man, I tell you arise!"

In our daily lives, we don't often witness such dramatic miracles. But with our compassion and prayers for others, we can be part of miracles we don't even know about. We can delight in the one great miracle which has happened and continues to happen for all of us.

SYMPATHY to the Family of Ashley Colombo whose funeral was conducted this past week.

PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

I have good news and bad news. First the bad news. I was diagnosed with left breast cancer two weeks ago. Now the good news. It looks like I may have caught it in time. I was told that at the level it is at, there's a very good rate of success in treatment. I'll know for sure when they do surgery which should take place this week. I will be away from the parish for about 6 weeks.

During my absence, the parish will be in the capable hands of Fr. Clancy. Also the Diocese will be sending Priests to assist Fr. Clancy on weekends. I know for a fact that Fr. Manning will be here a few times. I know that you will make all the visiting priests feel welcome because that's how you are.

I ask you to keep me in your prayers and know you are in mine.

May God Bless and protect you always.

Peace,

Fr. Ken Wallace

Pastor
