EVANGELIZATIONGLOWING

During the last full month of summer, we bask in the glow of the season, reluctant to let it go. Our ruddy faces reflect its brightness.

Ex. 34:29-30 describes the face of Moses as being blindingly brilliant after communicating with God on the mountain. Drawing ever closer to God ourselves, we pray that we too may radiate the light and warmth of His love.

"Stay with me, Lord, and then I shall begin to shine as You shine; so to shine as to be a light to others. The light will be all Yours, shining through me upon them. Teach me to show forth Your truth, Your praise, Your will. Make me preach You, not so much with words, but by my example, and the fullness of the love which my heart bears to You."

(prayer of Cardinal Newman)
