PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

As I sit here writing this column it's the Feast of All Saints and the one year Anniversary of my official installation to become the 6th Pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Parish. It's been a busy and eventful year. I thank you so much for your support. I thank you so much for making our parish a place that is so open to visitors. As I've said before, we not only get compliments of how beautiful our church looks, we also get compliments on how welcoming you are to those who visit our Church. This has resulted in a number of new parishioners over this past year.

This Friday, November 11th, we remember our veterans. We truly owe these men and women our gratitude for the sacrifices they've made for our Country and all of us. Please say a prayer in remembrance for those who have served or are currently serving in our Military.

Please keep Saturday, November 12th, open. Once again we will be hosting the annual Holiday Craft and Vendor Fair. The hours of the fair are from 10:00 am until 3:00 pm. The location of the fair is in the Social Hall. The Fair will feature homemade crafts, vendors' door prizes, a 50/50 raffle, food, and free admission. A special thanks to Judy Zalewski and her team for planning and coordinating this tradition.

I had mentioned in a previous column prior to my illness that there has been an increase of pedestrian traffic around the rectory especially at night. There have been times when Fr. Clancy and I have been watching T.V. on the back porch area of the house at night and people have come up and think nothing of peering in the windows. I was advised by the Diocese to place a fence around the rectory for security reasons. It is in the process of being installed. I had hoped to put a simple chain link fence around the parameter but was advised that because we are on a corner lot it had to be ornamental or wooden. I talked it over with Fr. Clancy and both of us agreed that a wooden fence would be open to graffiti. The fence will provide better security plus it will also augment the wonderful job the Gardening Committee has done.

Once again, thank you for all of your support. May God Bless You and have a Blessed week.

Fr. Ken Wallace

EVANGELIZATION

PRECIOUS GIFTS

Remember those seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit? They were bestowed on us at Baptism and Confirmation. On the brink of the presidential election - now's a good time to pray for an increase of their holy and wholesome influence on our daily lives.

Knowledge:	Sheds the light of truth on what we know; helps us to know God, Who can neither deceive nor be deceived.
Understanding:	helps us find meaning; promotes meaningful relationships
Wisdom:	shapes our values; determines our priorities
Counsel:	enlightens our decisions
Fortitude:	imparts the courage to be who we are, and do what is right
Piety:	the habit of prayerfulness
Fear of the Lord:	reverence for the Creator of all things, and for all things created.

Our Lady of Light, Spouse of the Holy Spirit, Mother of Good Counsel - pray for us.
