EVANGELIZATION

THE AFTERMATH

Last week we explored the seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Now the spotlight is on His nine wonderful Fruits.

“The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.”
(Galatians 5:22)

There’s no doubt the presidential campaign and election have been divisive. Now there are pieces and people to pick up, and somehow glue together again. “We must reject the notion that government can provide for our happiness. It’s time to immerse ourselves in aspects of our lives that are more within our own control than national politics: family, faith, friendships, charitable projects, and neighborhood needs, community work, our vocations and avocations.”

(Kevin O’Brien, The Plain Dealer)

America is us. It’s up to us to preserve and increase the goodness of our nation - the goodness that manifests itself in “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.”
