THE UNFAILING AND UNFATHOMABLE MERCY OF GOD

It's what made Christmas happen—and Good Friday, and Easter Sunday. It's the reason we can stand at the grave site and not go to pieces. It's the hope we have of heaven, and the embrace of our Father's arms. It bestows the enduring peace we crave, and makes of us genuine peacemakers. It's what we celebrate at every holy Mass.

Today on the Feast of Divine Mercy, we'll gather to praise, honor, and thank our dear Savior—entrusting anew ourselves and our world to His merciful care. Please join us at 3:00 pm here in church for the Rosary, Chaplet, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

ANYONE IN THE PARISH WHO IS INTERESTED

PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

I'd like to use this week's column to thank those who helped to make Lent and Holy Week a wonderful and prayerful experience.

The members of the Art and Environment Committee who spent hours planning and executing the decorations for Holy Week and Easter. This included driving out to North Ridgeville and picking up the flowers as well as building the platform for the washing of feet on Holy Thursday and the Resurrection Scene, and to those who responded to the request for volunteers to assist in decorating the Church.

The members of the Church cleaning crew who worked tirelessly to make sure that our Parish Church was spotless. This included washing and waxing the floors, the woodwork, pews, and polishing the brass on the doors.

The Eucharistic Ministers and the Lectors who gave generously of their time and talents to help celebrate the Triduum and we can't forget the 12 people who volunteered to have their feet washed on Holy Thursday night.

The Musicians, Cantors and the Choir who helped us to celebrate these days by their ministry of music. A special thank you to Mr. Mike Wilson, our Music Director, who did such a great job during these hectic days. He and the members of the music ministry spent many hours rehearsing since the first week of Lent and Tom Borowski for chanting the Easter Proclamation.

The Servers who helped with the various Liturgies with a number of them serving more than one liturgy.

The Ushers who kept everything and everyone organized.

Thanks also to all who brought cards, gifts and pastry over to the rectory continuing to spoil Fr. Clancy and me.

Finally to all the Parishioners who by your attendance and prayerful participation made these days come alive for us and the many guests who were also in attendance. This year many commented on how beautiful the grounds looked as well as the inside of the Church itself. Once again they commented on your gracious hospitality making them feel at home.

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. Please plan on attending the Service which will be held in our Church at 3:00 pm. Services will include the recitation of the Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and conclude with Benediction.

Have a Blessed Week and Thank You,

Fr. Ken Wallace, Pastor
Fr. Robert Clancy
Deacon Ken Hill
